Our Expertise

Our nurses provide exceptional care to adult and pediatric patients receiving infusion therapy in their homes throughout Connecticut. Our vastly experienced, highly skilled infusion nurses care for patients with infections, nutritional deficiencies, immunodeficiencies, cancer, and other diagnoses that require intravenous infusions of antibiotics, TPN, immunoglobulin therapy, biologics, chemotherapy and other specialized medications. Our staff is trained in the care and management of all venous access devices and infusion equipment. We collaborate closely with pharmacies and physicians to deliver state-of-the-art care. Our priority is to deliver skilled, safe care in a professional and compassionate manner while respecting the confidentiality of our patients.

Our Mission

Turtledove Home Infusion Nurses, LLC is committed to providing excellence in infusion nursing care. Our nurses blend exceptional skill, education, experience and compassion in their care of patients receiving home infusion therapy. The Intravenous Nurse Society Standards of Practice are at the core of our care, providing the framework for our standard of excellence.

Our Experts

Susan Brannelly Martin
BSN, RN, CRNI
Vice President

Sue's passion for home infusion therapy began in 1992 when she co-founded Collins I.V. Care with Jack Collins. Together, they built a two-person operation into the largest provider of home infusion in Connecticut. For 24 years, Sue managed the operation of Collins I.V. Care and its successor companies, Walgreens Infusion Services and Option Care. Her personal mission is for our nurses to provide exceptional infusion care to our patients in the comfort of their homes, while maintaining a compassionate and professional manner.

Sue earned a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Sacred Heart University. She is very active in her community, serving on the board of the Southwest Connecticut Area Agency on Aging, as co-chair of St. Ann Parish Council and volunteering at the Black Rock Food Pantry.

Mary Scianna Lisi
BSN, RN, CRNI
Director of Clinical Excellence

Mary has worked in the infusion industry for more than 27 years. She started the home infusion program for United Home Care in Fairfield, Connecticut, in 1991 and was director of nursing for Collins I.V. Care and its successor companies, Walgreens Infusion Services and Option Care, from 1998 until 2017. She has always had a passion for infusion therapy and has been a Nationally Certified RN in Infusion (CRNI) since 1991.

Mary earned a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) from the University of Bridgeport in 1982. In addition to her infusion expertise, she currently shares her love for teaching as a clinical nursing instructor. Mary volunteers as an EMT for Monroe EMS and is active on the fundraising committee for the Monroe Food Pantry.
